

Stocks are publicly traded units of equity in a corporation and may be common or preferred shares.

CANNEX provides End of Day Stock Prices and other related values for a comprehensive universe of stocks traded on major North American exchanges including:

- TSX
- New York Stock Exchange
- American Stock Exchange
- NASDAQ

Data provided by CANNEX includes:

- Stock symbol
- Stock name
- Currency
- Last trade price
- Open trade price
- High trade price
- Low trade price
- Share trade volume
- Number of trades
- Prior day last trade price
- 52 week high trade price
- 52 week low trade price
- CUSIP (subject to licence)

CANNEX provides this data under licence from SunGard Market Data Services, a global leader in integrated software and processing solutions for the financial services industry.

Stock Price Data

Brokers/Broker Dealers rely on CANNEX:

- For comprehensive, timely and accurate stock price data when providing printed, electronic and web based statements, analysis and portfolio services for their clients.
- To receive this data by electronic file either on demand or periodically.

Brokers/Broker Dealers using CANNEX can receive all their stock price data from a single reliable source and spend more time with clients developing additional sales opportunities.

Print and Electronic Media rely on CANNEX:

- For comprehensive, timely and accurate stock price data when providing printed, electronic and web based statements, analysis and portfolio services for their clients.
- To receive the universe of data or subset specific to their demographic or geographic market.
- To receive this data by electronic file either on demand or periodically.

Media using CANNEX receive all their stock price data efficiently from a single reliable source.

