

Andrew Johns

Investment Advisor

Andrew Johns is the lead Investment Advisor for the Cash Management Group at Canaccord Genuity. Canaccord Genuity (TSX: CF) is a leading, independent, full-service investment banking and financial services firm headquartered in Vancouver, BC.

With over 20 years of experience in the financial services industry, Andrew leads one of the top teams at the firm, with 18 associates and AUM of $2.5 billion of institutional cash.

The Cash Management Group specializes in managing excess cash and short-term investments for municipalities, universities, public organizations and corporations.

Andrew focuses on fostering relationships with financial institutions and is the visionary for his group. Today, the Cash Management Group runs the largest independent GIC deposit network of banks, credit unions and trust companies across the country.

The Cash Management Group also runs a private wealth management service and maintains a highly competitive foreign exchange program. Andrew and his associates are proud to offer superior service, advice, and performance.